Optimist Members Recognize Winthrop Police Officer Rockholt

Quick Facts

- Optimist members honored Winthrop Police Department Officer Scott Rockholt for his dedication.
- Each organization selects an outstanding officer to receive this award which is presented by the officer's supervisors.

ROCK HILL, S.C. - The Optimist Club of Rock Hill held the 2009 Respect for Law Program at Golden Corral on Monday, June 8. The annual program honors law enforcement officers from the Rock Hill area for the work they do in the community. Each organization selects an outstanding officer to receive this award which is presented by the officer's supervisors.

The Optimist Club of Rock Hill is a Youth Service organization dedicated to assisting youth programs throughout the Rock Hill area. Persons interested in volunteering with the Optimist Club are encouraged to contact Club Secretary Jim Weaving at 803/366-3683.
